He has

Operative went to Police Headquarters in Bayonne, N.J. in an effort to interview Sergt. McGrath and learned that he is still away on his vacation, but is expected back on Monday, the 20th instant.

Operative then made further inquiries regarding our Subject and the Williams family. Was advised that Thomas Wilson had been arrested several times in Bayonne and has a Police Record. Operative then returned to Police Headquarters and to the Bureau of Criminal Identification, and found that Detective Regney, who is in charge of those records, went out of town to get a prisoner.

Operative then returned to New York and was instructed to go to Mr. Pfeiffer's office, which I did and was advised by Mr. Pfeiffer to return at 2:30 P.M. to interview Mr. Palzer.

At 2:30 P.M. Operative returned to Mr. Pfeiffer's office and received further instructions from Mr. Pfeiffer and Mr. Palzer.

Respectfully submitted:

G.T.P.
